ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

At La Boite Theatre, we acknowledge the country on which we work and the traditional custodians of this land – the Turrbal Jagera people. We pay our respects to their Elders past and present. We honour the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people whose lands, winds and waters we all now share and their ancient and enduring cultures. This country was the home of storytelling long before La Boite existed and we are privileged and grateful to share our stories here today.

LA BOITE THEATRE
ASSEMBLY 2024

WHAT IS ASSEMBLY

La Boite Assembly is a skills development and showcase program conducted across 10 weeks designed for twenty-seven emerging actors, writers and directors aged 18+ in their first five years of professional practice.

Throughout the program, participants will collaborate with like-minded peers, create and develop a new 10 minute work, and learn from industry professionals through masterclasses and creative workshops.

Nine directors, nine writers and nine actors will be selected to participate, and work towards two nights of public outcomes at the culmination of the program.

FOUR WHY PARTICIPATE?

By participating in La Boite Assembly, you get the opportunity to:

- Build your skills within a rigorous creative process, which includes idea development, creation, rehearsals and production.
- Work with and learn from La Boite artists and industry professionals.
- Create new work and form new creative relationships through collaboration with like-minded creatives.
- Showcase your skills and talent in a public performance outcome.
- Networking and mentorship opportunities.

EMERGING DIRECTORS

Emerging Directors will explore the directing process, working with text, working with actors, developing a directorial vision and utilising production elements. Directors will be paired with a writer and actor to create a ten-minute monologue for presentation in the Roundhouse Theatre.

EMERGING WRITERS

Emerging Writers will analyse the writing process through dramaturgy, drafting and editing. Participants will be paired with an actor and director to develop a ten-minute monologue for the stage.

EMERGING ACTORS

Emerging Actors will deep-dive into the acting process, working with text, character, voice and movement. Participants will be paired with a writer and director to realise a ten-minute monologue in the Roundhouse Theatre.

NOTES

La Boite defines 'emerging' as artists who are in the first five years of their practice in a specific art-form. For example, you may have just graduated from your university course and been in the sector for one year. Alternatively, you may have been an Actor for 25 years, but have only just started practicing as a playwright in the last one to five years. There is no age-limit for this skills development program.

La Boite is committed to ensuring access to our programs. For any applicants that have access requirements, please let us know upon application submission and we'll do our best to accommodate specific needs.

Please email Senior Producer Jess Bunz via jess@laboite.com.au if you have any further questions about the program or application process. Good luck!
