Think you know the story of the Three Little Pigs, Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood, Snow White, Goldilocks and Jack and the Beanstalk? Think again. Roald Dahl's Revoltin' Rhymes & Dirty Beasts bursts off the page in a spectacular live show, taking the world's best-loved fairy tales and rearranging them with some surprising and hilarious twists. Frighteningly funny and seriously silly—it will delight and disgust in equal measures. Don't miss the return of this multi-Helpmann Award nominated production penned by the world's number one storyteller and from the team that brought you George's Marvellous Medicine.

16—17 AUG 2019

It's the final days of school... EVER. Audiences are thrust into a fictional version of today where school is no longer compulsory. A group of students at Bedlam High contemplate what this means for them and what they want next. Do they even want to go to school? Should they start their own school? What do they want to learn? What will the world be like without school? The only thing that's certain is these last few days are complete bedlam. The Final Days of Bedlam is a play designed for the classroom, to ponder the role of the classroom and what learning means. Written specially with grades 9–10 students in mind and performed by the La Boite Young Artists Company Ensemble.

It's the anniversary of Vinnie's death. His brother, 17-year old Preston is being visited by spirits—they torment him while he sleeps. His family have found ways to cope, but there's no denying that Preston's on the cusp of something otherworldly. It's time to purge the past to embrace the future, and an encounter with spirits might just be the catalyst they all need.
