WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

Ever since the 20th of March when the no more than 500 people in a room regulation was introduced by the Federal Government as a response to the escalating health crisis Australia's creative industries have been in free fall.

Mass unemployment, shelved projects, postponed works, repurposed funds with one of the heaviest hit casualties being the live arts, no people in the room, means no artist and no audience which means no theatre.

Bec Mac of POPSART invites Lee Lewis Artistic Director of QLD Theatre and Todd MacDonald Artistic Director of La Boite Theatre Company to answer the question "Where Do We Go from Here?" and from their perspective what does recovery look like from the impacts of COVID-19? What strengths and weaknesses have been revealed in their core business and how if addressed they could potentially come back stronger than ever for the artists, the audience and the organisation?

This will be a Zoom event Q&A facilitated by Bec Mac which will then be open to questions from the audience present.

It will also be broadcast live to Facebook via POPSART
